

Message from the Chair

A message from Antonia Chen, M.D., MBA

Welcome to the first 2025 issue of UTSW Orthopaedic Times! The Department of Orthopaedic Surgery has had a great start to the new year with leadership changes, the addition of new faculty and employees, as well as major Department events and orthopaedic surgery conferences.

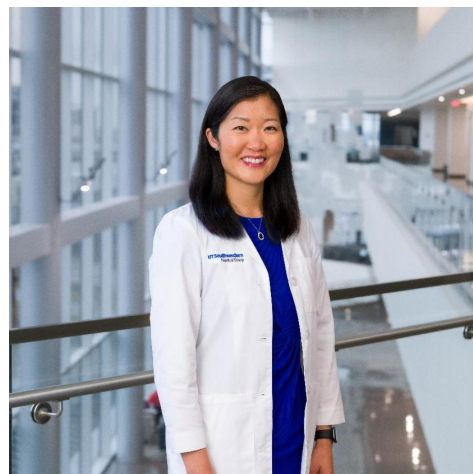

I would like to use this space as a reminder that the U.S. News & World Report's 2025-2026 "Best Hospitals" survey is now open to all board-certified orthopaedic physicians and we encourage your participation. If you are eligible, please log onto Doximity and follow the instructions to vote for UT Southwestern Medical Center and our Department.

Thank you all for your support as we shape the future of orthopaedic surgery. We hope you enjoy the newsletter!

Sincerely,

Antonia Chen, M.D., MBA
Chair and Professor
Dr. Charles F. Gregory Distinguished Chair
in Orthopaedic Surgery

Excellence in Motion

New Residency Program Directors for UT Southwestern Orthopaedic Surgery

The Department of Orthopaedic Surgery recently announced the appointment of our new Residency Program Directors.

Alexandra Callan, M.D., has been named the new Residency Program Director. Jaysson

Brooks, M.D., and Garen Collett, M.D., have been named Associate Program Directors.

Together, they will play a crucial part in continuing the legacy of excellence in our Residency Program and driving innovation in education throughout the Department. Click here to read the full announcement.

New faculty spotlight: Keely Boyle, M.D.

The Department of Orthopaedic Surgery has welcomed Keely Boyle, M.D., to our faculty on March 1.

Coming to us from the UBMD Orthopaedics & Sports Medicine, Dr. Boyle brings expertise in hip and knee replacement as she joins our Total Joints section. She also assumes the role of the Section Chief of Joint Replacement and Reconstruction.

We are excited to have Dr. Boyle as a member of our faculty!

Major Awards

UT Southwestern Orthopaedic Surgery and Scottish Rite for Children

surgeons receive accolades at PRiSM 2025 Annual Meeting

Scottish Rite for Children and UTSW Orthopaedic Surgery faculty attended this year's PRiSM Annual Meeting in Columbus, Ohio. Their many contributions and accomplishments at the event included the following honors:

Event highlights: Health Disparities Research Lecture Series and Dr. Suleiman's UTSW visit

UT Southwestern's Department of Orthopaedic Surgery, Office of Institutional Opportunity, and Peter O'Donnell Jr. School of Public Health invited Linda Suleiman, M.D., Assistant Professor in the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery and Medical Education at Northwestern Medicine, to speak at the inaugural Health Disparities Research Lecture Series and also to speak with UT Southwestern Orthopaedic Surgery residents.

Dr. Suleiman brought great insight and knowledge in her lecture for the campus series as well as her presentation with our residents. Thank you, Dr. Suleiman, for coming and visiting UT Southwestern, and sharing your expertise.

Check all the event highlights below.

Event highlights: Spine Symposium 2025 at Scottish Rite for Children

Scottish Rite for Children hosted its 18th Annual Spine Symposium in January. The event featured Michael Kelly, M.D., as visiting professor.

During the event, Dr. Kelly spoke to the audience about improving the quality of care, including surgical treatment, in patients with spinal conditions and deformities. Following his lecture, select fellows and residents, including UT Southwestern Orthopaedic Surgery PGY-3 residents, Marc Gadda, M.D., and Paul Gudmundsson, M.D., presented case studies.

Check out the event highlights below.

First Dallas Arthroplasty Journal Club led by Drs. Bounajem and Collett

UT Southwestern Orthopaedic Surgery Assistant Professors, Georges Bounajem, M.D., and Garen Collett, M.D., hosted the inaugural Dallas Arthroplasty Journal Club in January.

During the first meeting, residents, orthopaedic surgeons, and other guests reviewed arthroplasty articles and discussed high-impact of research in the field of hip and knee arthroplasty.

If you are in the Dallas area and are interested in joining the Dallas Arthroplasty Journal Club, please email Dr. Bounajem and Dr. Collett.

Dr. Chen participates in women surgeon-lead global medical mission trip

UT Southwestern Orthopaedic Surgery Chair, Antonia Chen, M.D., was one of many female orthopaedic surgeons who participated in the Women Orthopaedist Global Outreach (WOGO) Tanzania medical mission trip for 2025.

The WOGO medical mission trip provides life-changing joint replacement surgeries to those in need. Dr. Chen and her WOGO colleagues on this trip also got the chance to meet with local surgeons and explore the community.

What an amazing experience! Click here to learn more.

ORS Annual Meeting 2025 in Phoenix

UT Southwestern Orthopaedic Surgery was represented at the Orthopaedic Research Society's 2025 Annual Meeting in Phoenix, AZ. Attendees included UTSW Orthopaedic Surgery faculty Paula Hernandez, Ph.D., Richard Samade, M.D., Johnny Lin, Ph.D., and Scottish Rite faculty Harry Kim, M.D., M.S. and Chi Ma, Ph.D.

From Dr. Hernandez leading the Open Door outreach program, to Dr. Kim speaking at the POSNA centered Innovation Track session, it was a great experience for our faculty and attendees.

We are looking forward to next year's event. Click here for more about the meeting.

Low-Cost Lower Extremity Screening to Predict Shoulder Distraction Force in College Softball Pitchers

UT Southwestern Orthopaedic Surgery Assistant Professor, Sophia Ullman, Ph.D., also a faculty member at Scottish Rite for Children, was among the authors who worked on this one-of-a-kind collaborative study featured in the March issue of The American Journal of Sports Medicine.

The purpose of this study is to predict shoulder distraction force using low-cost, in-clinic screening measures, including isometric hip rotation strength and trunk mechanics during a single leg squat. Click here to read the full study.

The Midline Lateral Parapatellar Arthrotomy: A Safe Alternative Approach for Lateral Tibial Plateau Fractures

The midline lateral parapatellar (LP) approach has been shown in a cadaveric study to provide superior articular exposure compared with the anterolateral approach (AL). The study reports on outcomes and complications with the LP approach.

Longitudinal Improvement of Quality of Life in Children With Legg-Calve-Perthes Disease Treated With Proximal Femoral Varus Osteotomy

Proximal femoral varus osteotomy (PFVO) is commonly performed to improve femoral head containment and decrease deformity in Legg-Calve-Perthes disease (LCPD). Little is known about how PFVO impacts the quality of life after surgery. The purpose of this study is to determine the longitudinal changes to patient-reported physical, mental, and social health measures after PFVO.
